

THE SOBHAN TIMES

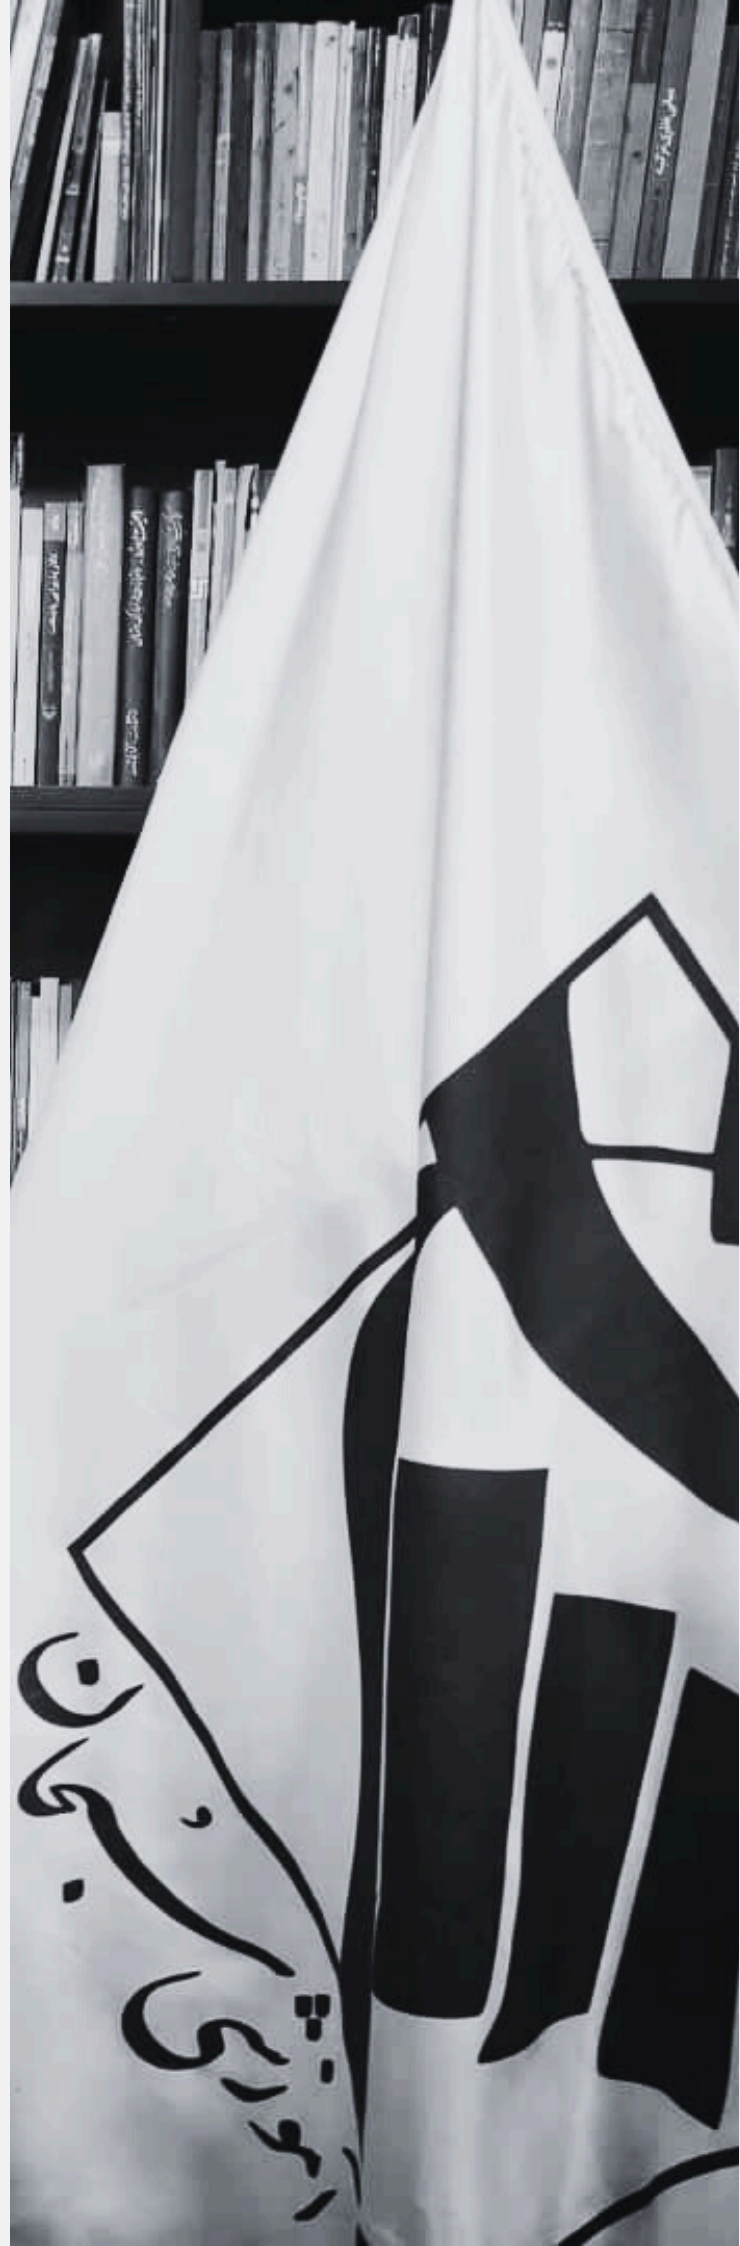

From Mr. Sadat

Preparing for exams? Give yourself the best chance with these top ten study tips and try not to stress!

1. Start early and plan strategically Create a study timetable and prioritize subjects. Use digital calendars or apps for reminders.
2. Organize your study space Ensure a comfortable, well-lit area free of distractions. Adjust to what works best for you.
3. Use active learning techniques Engage with the material through mind mapping, flashcards, and teaching others.
4. Simulate exam conditions Practice with past papers in a quiet room with a timer.
5. Take smart breaks Use the Pomodoro Technique: study for 25 minutes, break for 5, and take longer breaks after four cycles.
6. Use technology to your advantage Apps like Quizlet, Forest, Google Keep, and Study Bunny can enhance your study experience.
7. Fuel your brain wisely Eat nutritious foods and stay hydrated. Avoid junk food and limit caffeine.
8. Don't neglect mental health Practice mindfulness or meditation. Talk to someone if overwhelmed.
9. Stay physically active Regular exercise can enhance memory, concentration, and reduce stress.
10. Prepare for exam day like a pro Check exam logistics, pack essentials, and set alarms to avoid rushing.

Hope these tips help you ace that test! Good luck!

I want an image of a hamburger sunbathing on the beach, wearing sunglasses and with a confident 'sigma' attitude. The burger should have fries sticking out like arms. Next to it, there should be a cool Pepsi bottle on the table. Behind it, a blue beach umbrella should be visible, and the sun should be shining on the burger. In the ocean, there should be a beautiful blue whale.

A grand round table in a dimly lit, mystical room, where historical and fictional characters are gathered together. Albert Einstein with wild hair is holding a small chalkboard, passionately debating with Gandalf the wizard, whose glowing staff illuminates his side of the table. Cleopatra, adorned in golden royal attire, gazes at Batman sitting in the shadows, his cape draped on the floor. Leonardo da Vinci sketches a blueprint of Iron Man's armor, discussing it with Tony Stark, who appears intrigued. In one corner, Sherlock Holmes, holding a magnifying glass, closely examines a chess game being played by Darth Vader. In the background, a window reveals a vibrant galaxy with glowing blue and purple nebulae, casting a magical light over the scene.

The Story of Babylon

A long time ago, there was a famous city called Babylon. It had beautiful buildings and gardens, especially the Hanging Gardens, which were one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

The people of Babylon were very smart. They created the first written language and laws. They also built big walls around the city for protection.

One famous story is about the Tower of Babel. The people wanted to build a tower that could reach the sky to be as powerful as the gods. The gods didn't like this and made the people speak different languages, so they couldn't understand each other and couldn't finish the tower. This story teaches us about the importance of communication. Like the people of Babylon needed a common language to build their tower, we need a common language to understand each other today. English helps us communicate, share ideas, make new friends, and explore different cultures.
